Mrs. Petitti is a lady that has a special spot in my heart because of the extraordinary relationship she had with my son. Her guidance, love, wonderful recipes, fun loving, mentoring to him and his friends will never be forgotten. Her musical talents and etiquette are not to be forgotten. Her knowledge and service at NPS was amazing. I loved Mrs. Petitti.

Jamie Sue was a lovely and talented lady who was always willing to use her musical talents for church services and for the enjoyment of others. She was a musician for the Catholic Church, the First Christian Church, and occasionally played at the Methodist Church. For a time, she sang with the Methodist Choir. I still use her organ presets when I want a certain quality of sound for Methodist services. She was a valued member of the Schubert Federated Music Club of Sulphur. Always friendly and loving to people she encountered.
