

Agnes Virginia (Kite) LaFevers

June 6, 1919 - December 29, 2024

Agnes Virginia LaFevers, born June 6, 1919, in Horatio, Arkansas, to Yancy B. Kite and Alma McMahan Kite, passed away peacefully on December 29, 2024, at the age of 105.

Agnes spent her childhood on various family farms, where she embraced her role as the eldest of seven siblings, helping to care for her younger brothers and sisters. Her siblings and their families include: Yancy “Bert” Kite, who was tragically killed in action during the Battle of the Bulge, Jessie L. Kite Ingargiola, Eugene “Gene” W. Kite and his wife, Pat, Dixie J. Kite Garrett and her husband, Bill, Charles “Chock” L. Kite and his wife, Thelma, Danny O. Kite and his wife, Barbara.

Agnes cherished her large family and took pride in the numerous nieces, nephews, extended relatives, and lifelong friends she gathered throughout her life.

A 1937 graduate of high school, Agnes married Carl Bernard LaFevers on December 25, 1945. Together, they built a life centered on love, family, and faith. Agnes was not only a devoted homemaker but also a trusted business partner to Bernard. She was always at his side.

She found joy in her hobbies, including reading, gardening, sewing, and baking. Agnes was known for her Italian cream and German chocolate cakes, which delighted friends and family alike. She also dedicated her time and energy to the congregation of the First Methodist Church of Tishomingo, where she loved caring for parishioners and lending a helping hand wherever needed.

Agnes' life was a testament to hard work, faith, and love for family. She will be remembered for her selflessness, kindness, and the many cherished memories she created for those fortunate enough to know her.

Funeral services to honor and celebrate the life of Agnes LaFevers will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, January 3, 2025 at DeArman-Clark Funeral Home in Tishomingo. Interment to follow at the Condon Grove Cemetery in Milburn. A family hour will be held prior to the service on Friday, January 3, 2025 from 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, the family ask for donations to be made to the funeral home.
