“ Our family is loud. There is no denying it. If you aren't willing to speak up, you will not be heard. But Alford did not play the loud game at family gatherings. He sat quietly watching the goings on with a little smile and a glint in his eyes. It always seemed to me that Alford's fun came from watching and enjoying his kin in all our silliness. I have to say that Alford's smile grew larger and the glint in his eyes brightened when he watched Gay and the rest of his children and grandchildren. Alford loved his family and we loved him. I will miss this sweet man. Kay Clemons Knolles.

“ Our deepest sympathy for Gaye and the whole family for the loss of Alford. My Dad always enjoyed visits from Alford. They talked about the oil field and going back to work. It always gave him something to talk about for days and to look forward to his next visit.
Hugs to all. Peggy Nipper
