“ I wish I could have known Ali longer. I met him just shortly before he & Joetta got married. I was just thinking today that I sure wish I had more time to have more conversations with Ali. He just got my sense of humor and understood my way of honesty. He made me laugh every single time I seen him. I admired his genuine nature. He never presented himself as anyone other than a big guy that enjoys all the same happiness as you and everyone else. I'm going to miss seeing him and having good, honest and sometimes funny conversation and seeing him smile. My heart and thoughts are with you Joetta. To Xavier and Ali's parents and siblings, I include all of you and all people that loved your Ali Sean, in my prayers. May God comfort all of y'all in His love, mercy, compassion and tender arms of grace as this journey is traveled. God bless.

“ Ali is one of the most intelligent people I've ever met in my life. I loved his sweet friendly face. His tender heart. And his wit. I am so glad Xavier came to MD summer of 2013 and hung out with us in Annapolis with Ali. We are glad for having known Ali and know he is in God's presence now. Looking forward to see him in eternity.
