“ My deepest condolences to the Waddle family..Gene was a huge influence in my life..I learned so much from him from working on cars to roofing a house... many precious memories of being a part of a great family so many years ago... I pray the Lord wraps His loving arms around this family to comfort and guide them through this sad time...and recieve Gene into His kingdom with open arms to be reunited with his wife and other family members who has passed before him.. Amen... much love to you all... still in my heart... Debbie Broerse
