“ I remember the first time Angie and her family came to our church in Denton. She looked so much like my sister in law I almost thought it was her! We became very good friends and remained as such all these years. I will miss her so much! My prayers are with Bobby and the family.

“ My best memories always include her beautiful blue eyes and especially her laughter. Even her baby pictures show her laughing climbing a slide. Her joy filled the moment and our hearts. She was always generous with her time and hair fixing and fantastic cooking skills. We had many a taco she gave us in years past. Those were the best of times even though they were meager times..generosity poured forth. She was gifted in making any place she moved into a clean crisp,, cozy home with white sheets. I am blessed to have had Angie for my sister and lead the way into this big world as our big sister. I will miss your beautiful eyes and laugh. I'll see you soon Angie....your little sister, Debbie Wish I would of got to meet her, she sounds like special lady. I enjoy hearing Kayla laugh, so if she was anything like her, she was a blessing to many.
