“ My parents lived next door to Miss Ann for years. When we would visit from Florida she would always have something special for my young daughter. We still have Tommie Ann's Chatty Cathy and many doll clothes! She was a lovely lady who was kind, witty and thoughtful in so many ways. She will be truly missed.

“ Aunt Ann was the sweetest and most beautiful woman I know. But, she had a mischievous side to her that was hilarious!!!! One night when I was spending the night with Bruce Arland Jack, and you must know he was deathly afraid of spiders, Ann had placed a large black rubber spider under the sheet on top of his pillow!!! When he pulled back that sheet and saw that spider he nearly killed me and two doors to that bedroom making his escape out the front door !!!!! And-----in the background----you could hear Aunt Ann and Tommie Ann laughing with GLEE !!!! I loved Aunt Ann, and Uncle Tom!!!!
