“ My sincere sympathy goes out to Ann's family. I remember many great times visiting with Ann. We met as newbies at Sulphur junior high and had great times attending MYF, church camp, cheerleading, watching tv, and just driving around raging our parents and talking about those crazy boys. I remember spending Sunday afternoons after church at the Easleys and Jill as a tiny infant. It was a blessing that I was able to spend time with her at our 50th. highschool reunion. Ann was a very dear friend and and a special person and she will be missed.##imported-begin##Janet Holmes Fountain##imported-end##

“ You have made a wonderful choice to celebrate your Mom. She will be there with us. She loves you both and the grand kids sooo much. She is a blessing to all those who were fortunate enough to have shared her life. I will cherish our memories forever and never forget her laugh. God Bless you both.
