

Anole Combes

November 29, 1923 - January 1, 2017

Graveside Services for Mrs. Anole Combes, 92, of Lubbock, Texas (formerly of Tishomingo) will be held on Friday, January 6, 2017 at 10:00 a. m. at the Tishomingo Cemetery with Pastor Michael Dye officiating. Visitation will be held all day on Thursday, with the family receiving friends from 5-7 p. m. Mrs. Combes passed away on January 1, 2017 in Lubbock. Anole was born on November 29, 1923 in Blackwell, Oklahoma to Walter Johnston and Bertha (Clifton) Johnston. She was a graduate of Ponca City High School and Oklahoma State University. She married Winston Combes on April 24, 1951 in Ponca City. She spent most of her married life in Brownwood, Texas and a few years in Tishomingo. The last seven years she has lived in Lubbock. While in Lubbock, she spent many hours knitting blankets and hats for charitable organizations. She loved to play golf and in her last few years, bingo was her favorite game. Mrs. Combes enjoyed reading and was an avid reader until her eyesight failed her. She was very active in her church and was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Tishomingo. Mrs. Combes was preceded in death by her parents; her husband on October 25, 2008; a son, Jeff; her sister, Eunice Conner and her brother, Bob Johnston. She is survived by two sons, Jim Combes and wife Julie of Brownfield, Texas and John Combes and wife Pat of Manor, Texas; her grandchildren, Scott Combes of Flower Mound, Texas and Sandy Combes of Oregon; other relatives and friends. The family asks that memorials may be made to the First United Methodist Church Youth Group, 1002 E. Broadway, Brownfield, Texas.

“ I am sorry for your loss of your dear loved one. May you receive comfort from one another, loving friends, and God's Word. It is through the privilege of prayer that we can experience God's love and comfort in the most intimate way. May you find comfort as you pour out your heart to God in prayer because he cares for you. (Psalm 46:1)
