“ I sure enjoyed being your 3rd grade teacher. Our word of the week was "support" and you gave me an answer I will never forget. It still causes me to smile when I think upon it and it brings smiles to others when I share it. You'll not be forgotten. Rest in peace, Anthony.

“ Ant one of my memories that still makes me laugh is when I took you and Jesse to the store with me and I told y'all to stay in the car. Well y'all got out and when you got bk in you didn't shut the door good. We turned on the dirt road going towards nannies and the door came open and Jesse rolled out of the car and just in a second you jumped over from the bk seat into the front with your eyes big as saucer's and acted like you didn't see a thing. After we got home you followed Jesse around everywhere making sure she was ok. You and Jesse turned out to be the bestest of friends. You are going to be missed so much but your not in any pain anymore. R.I.P sweetie. ❤️

Sincere sympathy to Gordan, Sherry, and Shauna for the loss of your son, Anthony from me and Royce. His life on this earth was cut way too short,. His MeMaw Lois loved him so much and he loved her too. She really enjoyed having him live with her and talked about him all the time.
