“ This man, was the man to give the shirt off his back to anyone. He was always there no matter what, oh how I’m going to miss those good morning text and random calls. It didn’t matter if you were having a bad or good day, he was always the first to make you smile and make you feel oh so welcome! As him and I share so so many wonderful memories I can’t just pick one they all are my favorite. Those random calls of him saying “Pey let’s go on a Mexican date” or “let’s go hit a back road” will forever be my favorite! He was always the life of the party and will forever hold a special place in our hearts! We love you so so much❤️

“ Oh where do I even start with that big ol goofy boy!? Araldo was always the first to humble you down then pick you back up with a giant smile and belly laugh. My favorite memories with his goofy self was everytime we were together me and him would just go for each others throats talking smack back and forth! That was araldo though! Always had something to say and HAD to get the last word for the sake of humbling and always followed it with a laugh! He would go at it with me for hours if he had to! But don’t mistake that for being mean or rude because that just wasn’t his nature, he was always the first to step in and protect his friends, family, and anyone he was around in need of protecting. Such a sweet boy he was when he needed to be. And very fierce when the time came. A friend you could always count on and would drop everything at the turn of a dime if you needed him. We will miss that goofy guy so much. We love you so much Araldo. ❤️
