“ Richard and I want to share our sympathy for your loss and to thank you for sharing your father, brother and grandfather with Patsy (and us). Rick was a true friend and confidante to her and always treated her the the greatest honor and respect. He was a true gentleman.

They helped one another through many difficult times and shared hours upon hours of great conversations and countless laughs. Watching the two of them together was like watching a couple of teenagers enjoying life. I will always remember the sparkle in her eyes when she talked to him or got one of his texts. In the past few months, the brightest days for her were when Rick was coming to Sulphur and she got to spend a few hours with him...she made sure we all knew she had plans those days. Lol

Rick was the epitomy of a godly man and he will be deeply missed by all of us.

“ To each and everyone of Rick's family, Marsha and I have always loved your family. We were always glad to see our "Tiger Mountain Church Camp" neighbors! I will never forget in the year 2000 when during the time that I was very sick, Rick called me and told me that he loved me as a brother in Christ and that he wanted me to know that he was praying for me and understood very well the sickness that I was going through and dealing with. That to me is a true friend and I thank God for the friendship of Rick. We are praying for each of you during this time of loss.
