Barbara Ann Follis

July 23, 1935 – March 5, 2018

Barbara Ann Follis, wife of Dee Lane Follis, was born to James Willard and Mary Emma Poole on July 23, 1935 in Shawnee, Oklahoma. Barbara attended school in Shawnee, graduating in 1953.

During Barbara's early years she worked at Thomas Industries, Harp Green Valley Farms, and two years at Wagon Wheel Dude Ranch, a youth summer camp in McLoud, OK. She was the 1952 Shawnee Rodeo Queen.

Barbara and Dee married in 1954, where they started a long and interesting life together. To this union, they had three daughters, Kimberly Lynne, Dallas DeAnn, and Mickie Jo.

Barbara's love for horses, children, dogs and life brought her much pleasure. As Dee furthered his education and career, Barbara was active in their daughters' lives including endless miles on the road supporting their daughters' horse showing, 4-H, school activities and working as a retail associate in various locations. Barbara was saved in the Baptist Church and has been an active church member throughout her life to include her current church home, First Baptist Church of Asher.

Barbara is survived by her husband Dee, three daughters, Kimberly and husband Benji Fuentes, Dallas Alcantar and Mickie Hurley, grandchildren Dustin Follis and wife Crystal, Aaron Fuentes and wife Reanna, Adam Fuentes, Robert Logan Mills and wife Jordan, Laney Lewis and husband Darrell, and JoLynne Jackson. Barbara was loved and adored by her thirteen great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the Baptist Children's Homes of Oklahoma are appreciated.
