“ *Dear Cindy, Carrell, Wally and Garvin, How well I remember your mother's beaming smile and infinite patience when she taught a whole bunch of Sulphur kids how to square dance! What affection she showed all of us regardless of our talent (or lack thereof!). Cindy, do you remember when she carted us in that big old station wagon to Ada to dance on KTEN-TV?
Please know you are in my prayers for comfort and peace.
Blessings,

“ Words are so inadequate at times like this. Of course you have our condolences during this time.

Barbara was a kind and patient parent, putting up with a herd of visiting kids running through the house. We did not always make it easy. I do remember helping with a few chores before we could leave to go running around town.

*Rest in Peace - May God bless you all.###imported-begin###Eddie
