Barbara Sue Morris was born at home in, Wynnewood, OK to William Frank Moore and Ruth Elizabeth Moore, on November 3rd, 1930. She graduated from Wynnewood High School. She peacefully went to Heaven on March 15th, 2022.

She was married from 1951-1968 and had 2 daughters. Barbara discovered what a truly happy marriage was when she married Elwood Keith Morris on June 20th, 1970. Her girls also found what a good father figure was for the first time. They were married 42 years. She enjoyed sewing, playing bridge and cooking for the entire family on holidays. She loved attending church when able and her daily bible studies, and was a very strong Christian. After her husband passed, she moved to the Willows in Pauls Valley. The staff and residents there were very dear to her. She enjoyed playing cards with the residents and playing games and visiting with her great granddaughter Lexi Thomas. She will be sorely missed by all.
