“ Carol Musgrave, Baxter
Barbara and I became friends at a very young age. We spent lots of time together growing up. She was a very special person and we had so much fun together. After the death of her children it was hard for her to visit me because my two children were the same ages as hers. I think they were even born in the same months. I missed Barbara's friendship and thought of her over the years trying many times to locate her. I found the obituary today. Rest in Peace sweet friend. You were never forgotten.

“ We were so very fortunate and blessed to have gotten to know Barbara and Pete when we joined Beaty and enjoyed visiting and spending time with them at meals, fish fry. We're sure Pete was there to meet his sweetheart with a big hug and kiss. We look forward to joining them one day in Heaven. Our prayers and love to their sweet family. Love in Christ, Steve and Pam Branam

Darrel and family, my husband was in the service with Pete. We were stationed at Fort Belvoir in 69-70. We became friends and so enjoyed being friends with your parents. Joe got out April 1970 Your parents stopped through a few times when they would go back home. We live in Pennsylvania. We even went down to visit them when little Pete was born in Virginia. The last time we talked was when your Dad brought Little Pete to bury him and told us your baby sister wasn't good. I have tried to find them for a long time and I recently found the obituaries. I'm so sorry for your loss of your parents. I lost Joe in 2004 from Agent Orange. 🙏🙏🙏
