“ I didn't spend much time with Uncle bill growing up but the few times I meet him was nice. I was really sad to hear about this.

“ *I love my uncle Bill! I will truly miss that handsome mountain man! My heart Breaks and memories flood my mind. Today I am thankful of all the family stories and history he shared with me as we laughed about most of it. He was not only my uncle but my real Friend with lots of good advice. I will always remember that tough cowboy wearing his bear claw necklace and loving to hunt / fish. He was good about making time for people and coming to visit when he could. I will forever miss our chats and will always remember him being so ornery & fun!
Ride the beautiful mountains of Heaven and have a horse ready for me once we reunite.
Love you , Hootin' Nanny*

“ My greatest memories of my Uncle Bill, one of the most handsome man I know is of him wearing that black cowboy hat and his bear claw necklace. I always thought that was so cool when I was a kid to see him wear that necklace. Uncle Bill was so sweet and thoughtful and he truly loved those around him. We will miss him in our presence however God gained a wonderful Angel.
