“ Growing up I remember spending many weekend evenings with my parents at the Perry's, prowling around in Pam, Vicki and Glen's rooms (Pam was married and Glen was off to college - so basically I terrorized Vicki :) I can still remember the layout of the old home, Boyd and Daddy with their cigars - seems like Boyd was always busy in the kitchen/the grill with BBQ Chicken. Sending much love and Peace to all. Tommie

“ Although I haven't seen Boyd in years I have fond memories of the times he and Gene and I went fishing. I will never forget the day that just Boyd and I went and I gaught that big bass. Boyd always said if I had not had a great guide I would never have landed that seven pounder. He was probably right. Rest in peace, old buddy.

“ I'll never forget my dad and Boyd fishing together. They would come home and clean the fish and when we accumulated enough our families would have a big fish fry. Great memories for me
