

Brooklyn Enae Triplett

January 23, 2007 - March 22, 2022

On January 23, 2007, Mark and Adrienne Triplett were gifted with their precious, Brooklyn Enae Triplett in Ardmore, OK. From the day she was born; her outward beauty would astound. As she grew older; her inward beauty would confound. She was an old soul who knew that all that glitters isn't gold and that true beauty lies within. There was literally nothing that she couldn't accomplish once she set her mind to it. She loved art and nature. She racked up numerous rings, awards, and trophies both on and off the field. She loved playing softball growing up and was a natural at an early age. Her father took great pride and loved coaching her into the amazing young woman she became. She was a champion for the underdog and one of the first to lend an ear or helping hand to someone in need (so long as washing dishes wasn't involved). For her brothers Dorion, Colt, and Bear, it wasn't a helping hand they would get, but a playful "catch these hands" joke (mostly). She felt and loved so deeply.

On March 22, 2022, tragedy struck our small town. Brooklyn earned her wings that day along with five other beautiful angels she called friends. The T6 girls live their lives unapologetically and wholly. We can only one day hope to live a life so carefree, wonderful, and fulfilled as they. The rest of the world will know her as one of the Tishomingo six, but she will always be our #22. As she has done so many times in the past, she stole home despite her coaches wishes. The Triplett family hopes that friends, family, and the community can join them in celebrating the life and times of Brooklyn Enae Triplett. Brooklyn's Celebration of Life Ceremony will be just that. "A Celebration of life". Those wishing to attend are asked to wear something colorful and comfortable to help celebrate such a beautiful soul. She may have left this world too soon, but she left it a much better place. Chipisalacho (until we meet again), Princess Brooklyn Baby Big Girl.

The celebration of life will be held at 2:00 PM Friday, April 1, 2022 at Camp Bond in Tishomingo. Officiating the service will be Reverend David Lewis. Those serving as honorary pallbearers will be Dorion Underwood, Samuel Colt Triplett, Bear Minko Triplett, Luke Triplett, Joey Triplett, Zac Floyd, Julian Floyd, Breanna Floyd, Payton Lynn Deaton, Jacie Lowe, Drew Harcrow, Jacelyn Studdard, Ava Studdard, Kitana Hall, Khloe Curtis, Kaitlyn Smith.

A tree planting ceremony will follow the service at Seeley Cemetery in Connerville.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I live in Texas and did not know these beautiful girls but this accident hits too close to home. On October 10, 1993, I was in a bad car accident just like this one. I was not supposed to have made it through the night. It was the same in which I failed to stop at the stop sign, however, it was after 9pm so it was dark, the stop sign was 33 ft. from the road and my headlights did not even shine on it. There was also an unused building that block the view of traffic.

We had a dear family friend who fought for me in order to have that intersection changed so that no one else had to go through what I did. It worked and now that intersection is an overpass. Please fight for that intersection to be safer. No more lives need to be lost.

You all are in my thoughts and prayers. These beautiful angels will always be in my heart.
