“ I met this fine woman in of all places, an online game. I was lucky enough to have met her in person on a visit to Dallas where I was able to bring her some Trader Joes food items which she treasured. We forged a wonderful friendship. I will miss her deeply and she will be forever in my heart as one of the finest ladies I will ever know. Heaven is a better place with you in it, Carol! 🙏

“ Carol was a sweet I have many great memories of her. One of my favorite memories was Thanksgiving dinner for us Rodriguez kids. She made all kids of delicious food we were just expecting Turkey and stuffing. She went all out for us kids. To this day that is still the best holiday we spent with her.
