

Carolyn Louise Canaday

April 8, 1939 - December 23, 2020

Carolyn Louise Canaday was born on April 8, 1939 in Boise Idaho to Ronald “Pete” Mulkey and Edith Mae Mulkey. She grew up in the Lamont-Blackwell, Oklahoma area where her family farmed. She graduated from Blackwell Oklahoma in 1957. Carolyn married Charles Wayne Canaday on Christmas Day 1957. Over her life, she lived throughout Oklahoma, Colorado, and Kansas before settling in Tishomingo, Oklahoma. While in Tishomingo, Carolyn worked for Bank of Johnston County and Landmark Bank as a loan officer and bank manager. Carolyn enjoyed quilting, traveling, and cooking for her family and friends.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her parents, and sister Edna Mae Mulkey. She is survived by: her husband Charles Wayne Canaday; 2 sons, Jeff Canaday and wife Tonni of Spencer, Mark Canaday and wife Kimberley of Tishomingo; 4 grandchildren: Kylie Hastings and husband Quentin of Whiting New Jersey, Dakota Canaday and wife Allison of Edmond Oklahoma, Jessica Willingham and husband Cory Willingham of Cheyenne, Wyoming, Abbey Canaday of Norman Oklahoma; and 2 great grandchildren: Charlotte and Hunter Hastings.

Tribute Wall

“ Carolyn Louise Canaday

October 05, 2023 at 07:47 PM

“ She was my best friends mom and pretty much my 2nd mom growing up. Had the patience to deal with me and Mark all day every day during summer months. She is still an awesome mom to me.

Just learned of her passing as I am writing thus. The Canaday family helped me through alot of hard times and there is a special place for them in Heaven.

Frank Ivey - June 27, 2023 at 07:56 PM