“ My fondest memory was when we would be sitting on the cabinet sink and getting a wash up. (Our favorite time of the day) She would always some how tease us about using a corn cob to wash our ears out, so we would hear our names when she called us.

Also, when we were crying she would always mention "Do you want the birds or some other animal outside us crying.. her door was always open in the summertime. She would try to get us to stop crying this way.

I am not able to be with the family today. I loved granny very much, she took great care of grandad. I will miss her. Praying for the family.
