“ I'm at a loss and I feel awful. I did not even hear of Cecilia's passing until 7-9-22. I just want you all to know that I met Cecilia back about 1980 when we both worked at Joseph Harp Correctional Center. She was the Secretary on the Unit I worked on as a Correctional Case Manager. She was Awesome ands pleasure to work with. We developed a friendship that was everlasting ... a friendship that could be picked up and carried on like we never missed a beat. She married Captain Bob Noble who was our protector along with God as those prison doors would close behind us and we'd long to return home. Even after Capt. Noble and Cecilia retired and moved to Stratford, Oklahoma and I continued to work as a P&P officer I still took refuge in their home and sought there knowledge. Cecilia was a GEM and my Friend and I will miss her Dearly, but I Thank God for the Good memorable times he gave us !!! So sorry I missed out on saying my final goodbye. I Love You Cecilia and Capt. Bob !!!!

“ If I had only known last week was the last time I would see you and talk to you on the phone. I would have told you one more time that I love you! Thank you for letting me be apart of your and Mr Noble life. I enjoyed our talks to and from the Dr's office. Even though we would get to talking to much and miss our exit. May God bless everybody through this time of loss. I will miss Mrs Noble greatly!
