Chance will be remembered fondly for his fun-loving spirit and never missed an opportunity for a well-placed prank or a bit of good natured teasing. His bold sarcasm was legendary but beneath the witty barbs was a heart of gold. He had a unique way of making sure everyone knew they were loved, through every day simple acts of kindness. He turned ordinary moments into unforgettable memories, and his infectious laughter could fill any room. He approached life with a sense of humor and a mischievous glint in his eye, reminding us all to not take things too seriously. He was a loving and devoted soulmate, father, son, brother and uncle. He had a free spirit, a gift for playing pranks on friends and family, and deep compassion for all those he considered family. He came from a family of twelve and enjoyed spending time with them. He taught us all the importance of laughter, the power of connection, and the value of letting the people in your life know how much they mean to you.

Chance struggled with addiction for ten years and was baptized while going through the CAAIR Program (<https://caair.org/>) in Jay, Oklahoma. He strongly believed that if he could turn his life around, anyone could. "We will carry you with us in our hearts forever and always."
