“ Rest In Peace. May you walk the streets of gold forever and ever. Nothing can hurt you now. I will never forget all the memories we shared together. I will cherish them in my heart always. I will never know what you wanted to speak to me about. I will always love and miss you. In my heart you will always be. I have cried and cried but I know that you would not want me to cry, You would want me to go on and just never forget our memories. Although its very hard to do that I will never forget you.
