

Clarence "Buddy" Walter Freeman

January 28, 1946 - March 23, 2019

A memorial service to honor and celebrate the life of Clarence Walter Freeman, known to many as "Buddy" will be held at 2:00 P.M. Tuesday, March 26, 2019 at DeArman-Clark Funeral Home.

Clarence Walter Freeman known as "Buddy" to most, passed away at the age of 73 on March 23, 2019 in Sherman, TX. Buddy was born on January 28, 1946 in Little Rock, Arkansas to the parents of Clarence and Beatrice Freeman. He married the love of his life, Charlotte "Kaye" Crabb on May 31, 1998 in Las Vegas, Nevada. He spent most of his career years working as security in law enforcement; working as undersheriff, deputy and security officer. He spent many years traveling and working all over the United States building Sam's Club Stores and had been to every state except three. Buddy enjoyed collecting trains, painting or anything to do with art for that matter. He enjoyed dressing up as Santa Clause for the grandkids every Christmas Eve. Buddy finally made Tishomingo his home in 1996 when they welcomed their first grandchild into the world. He loved his family dearly and would spend every minute he could with them.

Buddy is preceded in death by his parents, Clarence and Beatrice Freeman; brother, James Freeman; nephew, Darren White.

Those he leaves to cherish his memories are his wife, Charlotte Freeman;

daughter, Kathy Ross and husband, Floyd; sister, Dorothy Richards; grandchildren, Corey Ross, Lori Ross, Justin Ross; sister, Dorothy Richard; nephews, Paul White and Allen Price and a host of other family and friends that will deeply miss him.
