“ I have such fond memories of both Clyde and Harold. My daddy, L. C. "Tubby" Bryant also worked at Hazel Atlas Glass Company, along with senior Mr. Kidd. The plant sponsored a baseball team which played right there at the plant, with bleachers, etc. Clyde, Harold and I, and probably some others played under the bleachers. I remember running, and jumping, and everything else that kids do. What fun! Every time we had a Class of 1950 reunion, Clyde and I talked of those times. God bless you, Wilma, and the other family members. Love, Mary Bryant Hunsucker Park
