Erin, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. My prayers go out to you and your family. The best thing is, God received the best little angel he could have asked for. He was the bravest little man. No matter what he was going through you never saw him without a big smile, and what a beautiful smile it was.

“ I remember Conrad coming to the hospital and we would play hide and seek. He was such cute little boy. I also could not wait to see how Erin would dress him up for Halloween. We now have a sweet little angel in heaven. Kim Whitefield
