

Dale Cooper Blain

March 9, 1925 - May 16, 2015

Dale C. Blain, a resident of Springer, OK, was born on March 9, 1925 in Berwyn, OK to Ada (Hicks) and Frank Blain. He passed away on May 16, 2015 at his home in Springer, OK at the age of 90. Mr. Blain had spent all of his life in the Springer area where he had worked for the school for over 40 years as a custodian and bus driver before retiring in 2001. He married Lorene Bernice Blain on March 9, 1946 in Stratford, OK. They spent their lives together until August 28, 2014 when she preceded him in death. Mr. Blain enjoyed raising coon hounds and beagles, coon and rabbit hunting, fishing, gardening, and spending time with family. Dale was a man of few words, though those who were close to him knew his love. He was a kind man who would give the shirt off his back to someone in need and never expected anything in return. In addition to his wife Bernice (the love of his life), Dale was preceded by his parents, 2 brothers - Gordon and Willie Blain, and a sister - Ruby Rycroft.

He is survived by a daughter - JoAnn Smith of Elgin, OK;
Grandson - Walter Smith and wife Chanel of Bronte, TX;
Granddaughter - Geri Hayes and husband Jerry of Springer, OK;
8 great grandchildren - Riley Smith, Barbara Querdo, Peyton Sexton, Cooper Smith, Jaxon Chantril, River Wood, Zachary Aman, and Hayleigh Aman;
One great great granchild on the way.

Special thanks to the staff of Cross Timbers Hospice for their compassion and care at this difficult time.
