“ My condolences to the Archer family. Recently heard of his passing. I knew Van as a young teenager at the Shawnee church. He was a talented kid with lots of smarts. God bless you Archer family.

“ I met Van in a really fun way. First, Van and I are huge Star Trek fans!! A friend and I went to see the theater re-release of Star Trek: The Motion Picture, and posted about it when we were going in. A few minutes later we saw a comment from this guy who said he was going to the same theater to see a later showing. Well, on our way out, a guy recognized my friend from a Star Trek web series and stopped us to say hi. He was the guy who had commented about going to the movie! And then we run right into him! That was Van. And we were friends ever since! Godspeed, Van.

“ Van, I remember the first time I had met you. You still had your motorcycle and I was hanging out Joelle. I am not going to lie, I was impressed with your knowledge of motorcycles. I have many other memories of you but will keep those to myself. I will miss you ever so much!! Take care of yourself up there.

I think I almost had him convinced on a Harley. It was a lot of work but I think that ride he did with you Chris really set the hook. I am sorry we didn't have more time together to see it through so we could all go for a rip. Gone to soon he is always on my mind and I will miss him greatly. Until we meet again my friend WFO!!!!!!

“ Van was the first of my friends to have a real job. It was at an office and allowed for him to use the copier. (what seemed limitlessly) We would go to his work late at night and make invitations to parties. Since we had only worked at a laser tag facility called Photon and restaurants, his job at an office seemed very adult-like. But Van was still Van, just with a nicer car. (a Supra if I remember correctly) And of course, he had his motorcycle. Reference year: 1988. It was a good year.
