“ I remember having so much fun working with David at the Corral Drive Inn, and also at Bisquit Hill when I was a teenager. We remained friends for many years and I'll never forget how much he loved Alice Cooper. We went with him to a concert one time. It was awesome. David had a big heart and was always there when I needed a friend. Rest in peace David, and I look forward to seeing you again one day. Love you, Kathy M. Dixon
