“ Grandpa, your songs that you taught us girls will continue...my boys have heard me sing those songs when they were younger...they laughed at me the way us girls did when you sang them to us. Thank you for everything you taught me: how to drive, how to dance, what it meant to work hard, and how to be genuine to name a few. I love you with all my heart.

“ We send our condolences and prayers to David's family. I spoke to him briefly at our last reunion, and could tell David had lost some of his zest and spark. But friendliness is an attribute that I'm sure stayed with him till the end. I hope he had a peaceful transition. If I was looking for Dad (LaRue) at our reunions, he could often be found visiting with David. David probably met few strangers- always wearing a smile, full of kindly spoken words. David lived a full life, and I know he has left a wonderful legacy for all his family and friends. I can say it was good to know David- our world could use more good men like him. God bless you all as you go through this trying time. Save us a seat David- no good byes here; just see you later. Glen and Bettye Fox, Ruby Jo, Greg and Sarah Fox
