“ I will always remember Debbie as being very kindhearted and giving of herself. She always had a kind word to say about people. Never held a grudge and always had a smile on her face. Those traits I know she left with Jody, Shannon and Kelly. I know even when she probably felt her worse she did not let it show and still put other peoples feelings ahead of hers. I want to thank you Debbie for being such a wonderful grandmother to Cooper. I promise I will show him the love and attention of two grandmothers and do what I can to help him grow into the fine young man you knew he would become. My prayers and thoughts are with you also Kenny may the grace of God give you peace.
