

Debra Kaye Lindell

August 25, 1955 - May 21, 2026

Debra Kaye Lindell, age 70, of Sulphur, passed away on May 21, 2026, in Sulphur. She was born on August 25, 1955, in Sulphur, to Delbert and Evelyn (Johnson) Gilbert.

Debbie was the ultimate social butterfly. Her salon in town, the Head Hunter, was quite the hub of visitors and clientele. She had several clients who had their hair done by Debbie for years, some even spanning decades. Sitting in her chair at the salon was not only a function of getting your hair done, but also served as a therapeutic outlet for many in town. Debbie was also a safe haven for many others over the years who were in need of help. She had a generous and giving heart, coupled with a fiery spirit at times.

In her free time, Debbie loved coed softball, camping at the lake, jet skiing, and water skiing. She also loved watching her grandchildren's and great-grandchild's sporting events. She was a longtime member of Vinita Avenue Church of Christ.

She is survived by her husband of nearly twenty years, Greg Lindell; her son, Austin Kirkpatrick of Edmond; grandchildren, Alex Kirkpatrick of Davis, Sam Kirkpatrick of Edmond, and Sylvie Kirkpatrick of Edmond; and great-grandson, Cole Kirkpatrick of Davis.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Delbert and Evelyn Gilbert of Nebo; and her brothers, Freddy and Mickey Gilbert.

Services will be held Tuesday at 1:00 p.m. at Vinita Avenue Church of Christ, with interment to follow at Oaklawn Cemetery. Family hour will be held Monday, May 25, from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. at DeArman Funeral Home.
