“ I was blessed enough to be able to speak about my wonderful, amazing Aunt Donna. She is one of the best people I've ever met and her passing has left an empty place in my heart. I know one day we will be reunited and I look forward to that. She left me with so many wonderful memories of laughter, good cooking, and beautiful flowers. She loved her family more than anything and is a shining star now. Anyone who knew her is a better person for having had her in their lives. Love to you always, Aunt Donna. I'll be seeing ya!

“ Donna is our cousin. My mother told me many funny stories about her, Donna, Mike and Ben when they were kids growing up. I can remember visiting her when she lived in Davis. When she moved away, I didn't see her as much but I never forgot her and our visits. I love her and will miss her. I have fond memories and will always treasure them. She was a loving and caring person, Prayers and God's peace to the family.
