Funeral Services to honor and celebrate the life of Doris Kate Bowles will be held on Wednesday, April 24, 2019 at the Church of Christ in Stratford, Oklahoma at 1:00 P.M. Interment to follow at McGee Cemetery.

Doris Kate Bowles was born on March 15, 1943. She graduated from Stratford Public School before heading to Oklahoma Christian College for 2 years before transferring to East Central State College to finish her degree in education. She married Geoff D. Bowles in January 17, 1969. After teaching both in Okinawa and all over the US following her husband to many different Air Force Bases during his career. She finished her teaching career with a Master in Education from ECU and with over 20 years in Stratford Public Schools , Oklahoma teaching 3rd grade, which she always insisted was the best grade. Touching many children's lives her legacy will live on. She was a faithful member of the Stratford church of Christ for over 40 years and taught people around the world about Christ through the World Bible School Program. She loved books, games, laughing and most of all – time with family, especially Christmas and dinners with the cousins every Sunday afternoon. She brought joy to all around her. She is preceded in death by her father, John Klutts and her mother, Ida Irene Magar Klutts , her husband of 43 years Geoff and her beloved sister, Barbara Sue Klutts McGalliard. She is survived by her brother-in-law Leslie R. McGalliard, her niece Jana McGalliard Cook, nephew-in-law Richard Douglas Cook, nephew Michael Kent McGalliard, niece-in-law, Jennifer Thompson McGalliard and many great nieces and nephews including: Colby Cook, Kynlee Cook, Alex McGalliard, Henry McGalliard, John-Luke McGalliard, Endy McGalliard, James McGalliard and little Rose McGalliard and too many wonderful cousins to name them all. She will be missed and loved for many generations by the children and family she taught and loved. She left behind the earthly life for a heavenly journey on April 19, 2019.
