

Doris Edith Donaho

March 17, 1923 - April 10, 2011

Doris Edith Donaho, a resident of Sulphur was born March 17, 1923 in Dougherty, Oklahoma to W. Hudson and Mary Maud (Hunter) Tomlinson. She passed away surrounded by family on Sunday April 10, 2011 at Sulphur, Oklahoma at the age of 88 years and 23 days. Doris had lived in Murray County most of her life; working as director for INCA Services until her retirement at 80 years of age. She and W.L. Donaho, Jr. were married on August 21, 1939 in Sulphur, Ok. He preceded her in death on July 17, 2002. Doris was also active in the Arbuckle Historical Society and numerous other organizations and touched the lives of many people. Doris will be remembered as a true, loving, devoted Christian. We honor her for her humility, determination, generosity, strength, kindness, and unconditional love; but most of all, for her good meals. It seemed as though she could feed an army from her icebox. Doris was preceded in death by a son; Tom Donaho

Survived by daughter and son-in-law Charlotte and Jim Pierson of Minot, N.D.; son Bob Donaho of Davis, OK; son and daughter-in-law John and Sydnee Donaho of Drake, OK; granddaughters; Rachael Henry; Jennie Teeter; Amy Thomas; Sara Megan Donaho-Jones; Kylee Donaho; grandsons Jesse Donaho; Levi Donaho; Denver Donaho; Pake Donaho
9 great-grandchildren
Special niece and husband; Norma Jean and Richard Digby of Davis, OK
