“ I will miss you everyday. You were always there for for me and anyone needing help or just a good laugh. You loved children and seeing them laugh. Compassionate like no other. You loved your family with your whole heart. I will always love you Dowell Anai. And will always cherish the time We did share. Being around you made me a better person. Words could never express the great person you where and the place you will always hold in mine and Breezy's hearts..

Love You Always.
