

Dustin Gene Whitaker

August 28, 1992 - April 21, 2023

Dustin Gene Whitaker, was born youngest of four children on August 28, 1992, to Gene and Mitzi Whitaker.

He was a lifelong resident of Wynnewood, Oklahoma where he graduated from Wynnewood High School. He worked at McDonalds where he proudly worked his way up to management. From the beginning, life was challenging for Dustin, though most could never tell he battled a rare immune disorder, known as bull-headed by his family, he surpassed all of the doctor's odds and always left them scratching their heads. He lived life like a Russian roulette game; living it to its fullest with his best friends, JJ and Brandon in tow. He often said, "If it doesn't kill me, I'm going to die anyway" Which always prompted "the look" from his grandma. If it had crazy written on it, he was up for it. He had a deep love for his family and friends and a passion for life. He loved fishing, hanging out in the yard barbequing with family, and going down to Full House with his town family. At home you could find Dustin researching anything about science, spending most of his time with his mama. and especially enjoyed pestering and spending time with his sisters. Dustin had a strong bond with his parents and sisters from birth and was surrounded by his three girls in his final moments on April 21, 2023 and his memory will be carried on through his surviving family.

He was preceded by his brother Rusty Don Whitaker, father Gene Whitaker and grandmother, June Chandler.

“ From church camp to the fireworks stand, hood surfing to bickering like siblings, Dustin was a big part of my life growing up and I'll be forever thankful for that. He lived life to the fullest on his own terms and that's something I think we should all aspire to. I'll miss running into that shit eating grin around town and at McDonald's. I pray he has no pain and is giving everyone else around him as much hell as he gave us down here.

“ I would drop my kids off at McDonald's and Dustin would yell at me to wait so he could sit in the van and smoke his cigarette, then he went on a few door dashes with me I told him he would be late but he said Pinky won't mind. or he would call me when he was in the hospital, just wanting to talk about anything or everything I loved having my talks with him. I am going to miss him so much. im so glad I got to know him. R.i.p Dustin Whitaker, I will love and miss you, my dear friend. give them Hell up there.
