“ The first time my brother and I met our new family was in 1978. We were meeting our dad's new wife and her two daughters. This was a new experience. I was happy! I had two older sisters! Finally, I was not the oldest and I had older siblings!!! We spent almost every summer together. I remember swimming at the pool, hanging out with cousin Ricky (RIP). Mama Easy was always cool with giving us leeway in going to the pool or over to grandma and grandpa's, they were the coolest people! or over to Aunt Vera's to play with Charlemayne and Leontyne. Mama Easy made it a point that every Sunday we all were up for church and it tripped me out the first Sunday that the church was behind the house. She taught me how to play the piano, I don't think anyone knew that. She was a very patient, understanding woman who treated me and my brother like her own. She never made us feel like we were different. She put up with a lot from my dad and I cannot even begin to appreciate that from her; she was a PATIENT woman! LOL! She is in a better place now and she is with her parents and crazy Ricky, not in any pain. God Bless!

“ My wise endearing friend was a daily reminder of what God' example of love meant, a weekly bouquet of roses received saying "I love you", a monthly appreciative mantra of being grateful for living and a life time of humbling services to family, friends and others. If we believe that we walk by faith and not by sight, we can believe that Eloise is still walking with us but not in sight. Each of us are steps closer to joining Eloise in her strong walk to Heaven and let us rejoice in her life and be mindful of lessons learned, and there were so many lessons learned from her.

Peace, happiness and love to the universe from the presence of Eloise' existence on this earthly side. You were loved and still being loved by us moving towards the edge of eternity into your realm.

God got you.

A life long friend.
