

Erlene Mary Fontenot

August 22, 1942 - October 10, 2023

Erlene Mary Fontenot, 81, of Bromide, passed away on Tuesday, October 10, 2023 at Brookside Nursing Home in Madill, Oklahoma. Erlene was born on August 22, 1942 in Charles, Louisiana to Joseph and Helen (Abshire) Leger. She spent most of her life in Lake Charles, Louisiana until moving to Bromide, Oklahoma in 2003 to be with her daughter, Rebecca. Erlene loved to play games; cards, Yahtzee, you name it and she would always be ready to play. Her famous rice dressing was a favorite. Erlene took everyone in as her own; she was everyone's "maw-maw". She may have been the only girl in her family, but she wasn't afraid to tell those boys that if they picked on her too much, she would whoop them. She was full of life; always happy, smiling and made sure everyone felt loved. Erlene had a heart for others that will be truly missed by all.

Erlene was preceded in death by her husband, Eldridge Fontenot; parents, Joseph and Helen Leger; sons, Jerry Doucet and Bobby Doucet; siblings, Nolan Leger, Toby Leger and Joseph Abshire.

Those she leaves to cherish her memories are her daughter, Rebecca LeDoux and husband, Wayne; son, Dean Doucet and wife, Nolia; daughter in law, Yvonne Doucet; grandchildren, Joey Doucet, Timmy Doucet, Micheal Doucet, Jerry Doucet II, Kelli Harper, Nikki Landreneau, Justin LeDoux, Bryan Sarvaunt, Brandon LeDoux, Tyson LeDoux and Tuesday Montgomery.

A visitation will be held from 6:00 – 8:00 PM on Friday, October 13, 2023 at DeArman-Clark Funeral Home. No services will be held following the visitation.

“ MawMaw, always dressed in your jeans and lipstick on. Ready for that hug every time i saw ya. i remember the time you won the quilt at Bromide Old Settlers day, we pulled the ticket out of the bucket and it said your name and we all were looking around and we all were reading or trying to read the name because nobody knew your actual name, lol. we all knew you by MawMaw. Becky overheard the name as she was walking by to get someone a refill or something and said what are we trying to figure out? then we said we have no idea who this person is, we cant even pronounce it, she said what is it? then in my hillbilly accent, i tried to prounounce it, she said THATS MY MOMMA!!! first time i ever heard your actual name... then i never could remember it after that... Im glad that the "Cajuns" moved northeast way back and became our friends. ill never forget this MawMaw the Cajun Queen! In Ciel Now Au Ras de Dieu Beaute' Cajun Ange!!!! (hope i said that right, yall know im an okie, lol)
