“ I remember waking up and seeing my friend ust getting up for a long day in the Marines. He was respected and loved by all who knew him. I'm sad to see him go but his life was dedicated to others who were in need.I am proud to have known him when we served together. You will be missed.

“ I had a truck that was only a few months old at the time and kept it looking show room new. Everett wanted to go to Pauls Valley and I agreed to take him. As soon as we got on the road he looked at me and asked "has anyone ever smoked in here?". I smiled and responded, no not yet. He fired one up, heck it's just a truck he said. That was my friend. Love him or hate him he was one of a kind. I hope he has finally found peace.
