“ *Uncle Jr, I miss you, you will always be part of me and the person I grew to be. I can see you now out by your boat at the waters edge early in the morning laughing, checking your fish stringer. I remember when you lived next door to Grandma and how you loved to get me and Billy wrestling around, the time you and Daddy brought those baby raccoons into camp so that we could see them; these are just a few of the memories that flashed through my mind as I'm sitting here. The times we all spent a week of summer vacation together and the holidays; these were all wonderful times for me. The last time I saw Grandma Smith was at your house when you lived on Rosedale next door to Grandma Mizell. You will be with me forever as all the people we love are with us forever they are a part of the very fabric of our soul. They come to us in the moments we need them the same as they take a part of us with them to light their path when needed no matter how we may be separated by time, distance or even death. I count myself blessed as one of the many who shared part of your life. Thank you for being part of mine.
Love,
