

Freddie Lee Fulton

November 4, 1949 - April 14, 2026

Freddie Lee Fulton, 76, passed away on Tuesday, April 14, 2026.

Freddie was born on November 4, 1949, in Weimar, Texas, to Milton Adams and Elfredia Scott. After completing his education, he proudly served his country in the United States Air Force. Following his honorable discharge, Freddie built a career as an electronics technician.

Freddie believed that learning was a lifelong endeavor. He had a deep love for reading and studying mathematics and especially enjoyed playing chess. In his free time, he could often be found taking walks, playing tennis, and meeting new people. Freddie found great joy in sharing his life experiences and engaging in meaningful conversation with others.

He is survived by his former wife, Alma Fulton; daughters, Rashida Fulton and Soninke Fulton; grandson, Ce'Marion Lee Pickens; mother, Elfredia Scott; brother, Charles Scott; sisters, Dorothy Ford, Cynthia Foreman, Debra Scott, and Lisa Fletcher; as well as many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Milton Adams; brothers, Wayne Fulton, Derek Scott, Bobby Scott, and Leonard Scott; and his sister, Gladys Rosemond.

Freddie Fulton will be fondly remembered and deeply missed by his family and all who knew him
