Those he leaves to cherish his memories are his two brothers, James McDade and wife Charmane, Teddy Jr.; sister, Terri Moore and husband Scott; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends who will deeply miss him.

“ Gary was my best friend in high school. Later we went our separate ways and I never saw him again. I have thought of him often over the years and even thought of looking him up, now it is too late. Well life gets in the way sometimes. Rest in peace my friend. Love you like a brother. JD

“ It saddens us to say that our long time friend and hired hand for longer than 10 plus years lost his battle...he will be greatly missed by not only us here at the ranch but many family and friends. He was such a mild mannered man, always willing to help with anything we asked of him. I just look around the place and see many things that he had a hand in, including helping to build our beautiful home we live in here. He helped with the reconstruction of our daughters home, and helped Colby construct many many steel barns and buildings over the years. Just the last few months he was here he cleaned up the place and made it look like its never looked before. He kept the grass mowed and manicured and many many more things too much to mention. Well miss you Gary, your smile and your laugh we all loved so much....may you rest now in Gods arms, no pain and suffering anymore....God rest your soul....Colby and Vicky Franks
