

Gary A. Pitman

October 15, 1949 - February 23, 2019

Graveside Service for Gary will be held at 2:00 P.M. on Tuesday, February 26, 2019 at Mill Creek Cemetery in Mill Creek, Oklahoma. The time for family and friends will be Monday, February 25 from 1:00 - 5:00 PM.

Gary A. Pitman age 69, passed away at Mercy Hospital in Oklahoma City, OK on February 23, 2019. Gary was born on October 15, 1949 in Bakersfield, California to the parents of Rosco and Maxine (Coffee) Pitman. On October 25, 1994 Gary married the love of his life, Virgie Sharp in Tishomingo, OK and the two have been inseparable ever since. They would spend their days together enjoying the simple things in life such as feeding the hummingbirds or going on a walk to hunt for some wild mushrooms. Gary was an avid outdoors man from making turkey callers to hunting and fishing that was his happy place. He also loved Jeopardy and as Virgie says, "Most days he would be feeding our family good with all the money he would pretend win." He was a smart, intelligent and loving man who will be greatly missed by those fortunate enough to have known him.

Gary is preceded in death by his parents, Rosco and Maxine Pitman; brothers, Frank and Jerry; sister, Sue.

Those he leaves to cherish his memories are his wife, Virgie Pitman; daughters, Sherri Collins, Stacy Stephens and Christie French; son, Terry

Hughes; brother, Gene Pitman and wife, Hannah; sister in law, Kaffie Pitman; and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews that he loved dearly.
