

Geraldine "Gerry" (Pike) Manley Eddington

December 1, 1931 - July 24, 2023

Geraldine (Pike) Manley Eddington, 91, passed away on Monday, July 24, 2023 in Durant, Oklahoma. Geraldine was born on December 1, 1931 in Lemon Cove, California to Leon and Dorothy (Squire) Pike. She spent most of her younger years in California until her family moved to Texas where they went through the Dust Bowl Days. Geraldine married Francis G. Manley in 1950 in Byers, Texas and were together for 35 years until his passing in 1985. She retired from tire management at Uniroyal and was involved in the Johnston County Riding Club as well as the square-dancing club. Geraldine loved making quilts for her son and daughter in law and grandchildren, enjoyed fishing as well as going to garage sells. Her proudest moments were watching her first granddaughter being born and then came her little firecracker grandson.

Geraldine was preceded in death by her parents, Leon and Dorothy Pike; brother, Tom Pike; sister, Juanita Galloway.

Those she leaves to cherish her memories are her son, Francis Marion Manley and wife Charlotte; 2 grandchildren, Misty Rowland and husband Jeff, Michael Manley and wife Tiffany; 7 great grandchildren, Tyler Rowland, Elizabeth Rowland, Ryan Rowland, Paul Rowland, Sadie Manley, Sophie Manley, and Saylor Manley; brother, John Pike; sister, Marilyn Bowles; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM on Friday, July 28, 2023 at DeArman-Clark Funeral Home. Interment to follow at the Bee Cemetery in Kenefic, OK. Those serving as pallbearers are Tyler Rowland, Michael Manley, Jeff Rowland, Danny Turner, Jeremy Turner and Mike Reven. Family hour will be from 6:00 – 8:00 at the funeral home on Thursday, July 27, 2023.
