

Geraldine Robinson

September 19, 1935 - May 29, 2010

Funeral Services for Mrs. Geraldine Robinson, 74, of Tishomingo will be held on Tuesday, June 1, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. at the Church of the Nazarene with Rev. Dick Sowder officiating, assisted by Rev. Chad Townsley. Interment will follow in the Tishomingo Cemetery. Mrs. Robinson passed away on Saturday, May 29th, at her home.

Geraldine was born on September 19, 1935 in Denison, Texas to Fred C. Hinkle and Dona Foreman Hinkle. She graduated from high school in Wister, Oklahoma and received an associates degree in business from Murray State College in Tishomingo. She married S. R. Robinson on January 15, 1959 and lived away from Tishomingo for a few years until returning in 1970. She and her husband bought Chuck's Grocery in Tishomingo in 1979 and owned and operated the store until their retirement in 2005. Mrs. Robinson was a very active member of the Church of the Nazarene and had been the church organist for many years.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Mrs. Robinson is survived by her husband S. R. Robinson, of the home; three sons, Gary of Ada, OK, Terry of Bethany, OK and Ron of Houston, Texas; two daughters, Sheri Marsh of Bethany and Shana Sorrels of Sherman, Texas; two sisters, Wanda Combes of Tishomingo and Freda Brinkley of Greenville, Texas; twelve grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Pallbearers for the service will be: Clay Combes, Carl Atteberry, Chad Atteberry, Colin Atteberry, Jerold Phillips and Nathan Brinkley.

“ My Aunt Geraldine was one of the most loving people I have ever know. She loved God first and then all the other just followed. I was so lucky that God allowed me to have such a wonderful Aunt. What a blessing she was and will always be to me.

My love to Uncle SR, Gary, Terry, Ron, Sherry and Shana.
