

Glenda Elaine Davenport

September 16, 1938 - April 29, 2017

Glenda Elaine Davenport was born to Henry Allen Jolly and Mary Dollie (Smith) in Wynnewood, OK on September 16, 1938. She passed from this life into eternity on April 29, 2017. Elaine was the oldest of 5 siblings. Elaine attended school in Wynnewood where she graduated in May of 1956. She married Louis Edward Davenport, also of Wynnewood, on November 23, 1956. Their first daughter, Lesa, was born June 29, 1958 and a second daughter, Gina was born December 31, 1959. They moved to Moore in 1962 where they welcomed a son, Eric, on February 24, 1965. Elaine and her family were active at First Baptist Church in Moore where she served as a Sunday School teacher, Youth Sponsor and choir member. She also volunteered at the schools her children attended and worked part time in the office of Dr. C. J. Shaw. In 1983, Elaine graduated St. Anthony School of Nursing as a Registered Nurse and worked in that capacity in various locations in Oklahoma City until she retired in 2005. After raising her children, Elaine felt nursing was God's call on her life and caring for her patients gave great meaning to her life.

Elaine was preceded in death by her brother Harry Keith Jolly, brother James Allen Jolly, and her parents.

She is survived by her children Lesa Lee and husband Rodney of Oklahoma City, Gina Davenport-Bartholomew and husband Brad of Houston, Texas and Eric Davenport of Oklahoma City, her grandchildren, Anna Lee, Kathryn Lee, Rachel Lee, Randi Gillihan, Johnathan Davenport-Brazeau, and Dakotah

Valverde, great grandchildren, Hailie Anderson and Taylor May, her sister Betty Huntington and sister Mary Jane Baker both of Mabank, Texas and many cousins, nieces and nephews.
