“ I knew Gloria when she lived off 82nd in Milwaukie, Oregon back in 1972. She baby sat my little girl Ronica and loved her as if she was her own. Gloria was the first Christian woman I had ever met that truly lived the life of born again Christian. I didn't know what that really was until Gloria came into my life and change me forever. She mentored me as a young Christian and mother and I'm eternally grateful to her and look forward to spending eternity with her. My deepest sympathy to her dear family. Sue Ludlow Canby, Oregon
